Yellow warning
Wind

Between 13:00 Sat 12 Mar 2022 and
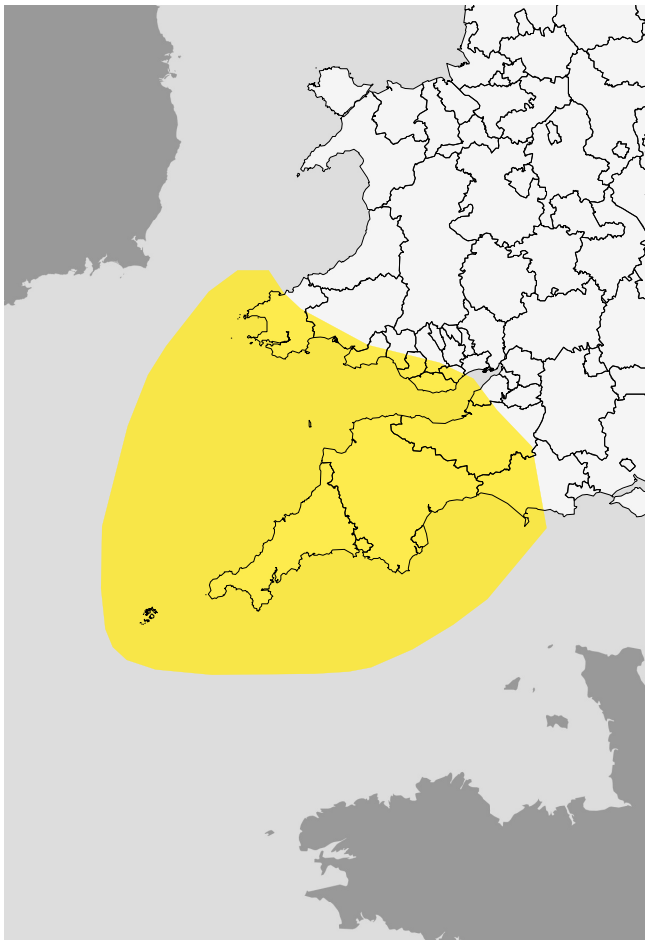
19:00 Sat 12 Mar 2022



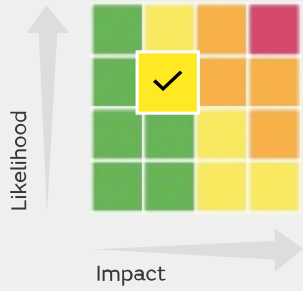
A spell of windy and wet weather during Saturday afternoon may lead to some travel disruption.

What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely and damage to trees possible
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

A spell of wet and windy weather with coastal gales and heavy rain will develop during Saturday afternoon. Gusts in coastal areas are likely to reach 50-55 mph and perhaps as high as 60 mph in the most exposed parts of Cornwall and southwest Wales. Inland, gusts will tend to peak at 45-50 mph away from hills and mountains. Wind will then ease a little during the evening.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
